THE NEW BOOK.

DORA DARLING, THE DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT.

PRICE $1.50.

A tale of the war romantic and thrilling, with stirring incidents that illustrate the power of human sympathy and woman's tenderness. It relates the reader through the battles, died, among the sick, wounded and dying, and holds its attention by the pathos and interest of the scenes.

"This is one of the most interesting and intensely interesting stories which the war has occasioned or called forth. It seems to us as superior to 'Ady's Case' in its intense interest and artistic finish. It is a true picture of the war, and is an original character placed in circumstances of greatest gravity and exciting picturesqueness. She fills the entire book with the naive interest and charm of her personality. The book cannot but be popular."—Christian Inquirer.
